

National Industrial Scale Association

February 21, 2023

Dear Members,

We will host our Spring 2023 Technical Conference in Lexington, Kentucky from April 23-25, 2023.

A block of rooms has been reserved at Hilton Lexington/Downtown, 369 West Vine Street as follows:

- Saturday, April 22 through Tuesday, April 25, 2023
- A rate of $199 per night using NISA23
- Rate is valid until March 30, 2023

Information for booking rooms can be found at nisa.org/conference-information

NISA is under contract to fill a minimum number of rooms; we ask that if you plan to attend the conference please stay at this hotel.

To help fund our technical publications and hospitality sessions, NISA depends on the generous support of manufactures, suppliers, and members. Sponsorship is $300. All sponsors are recognized at the conference and in the technical publications.

Visit nisa.org to take care of your membership dues, conference registration, and sponsorships.

If you wish to pay by check, please submit the appropriate online forms and send a check, payable to NISA, with copy of the forms to:

Hayley Sirinek
230W Coleman St
Rice Lake, WI 54868

Please do not hesitate to reach out to me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Hayley Sirinek
NISA Secretary/Treasurer
